

How To Relocate to NYC With Style, Class, Luxury and Ease...

At Mark David we understand that time is the greatest luxury of all. Whatever your reason for relocating to NYC, Mark David makes finding an apartment to rent or a home to buy faster, easier and more efficient, but most importantly, our services to you go beyond the real estate transaction.

We take the time to research your needs- we understand you are looking for more than an apartment, condominium, co-op or home or a good New York City neighborhood – You're really locating a whole new way of life.

We'll handle every aspect of your move, from finding your new home in Manhattan to handling the details of getting the gas, electric and telephone turned on. So you can relax with the impeccable service that is the hallmark of Mark David and let us take all the pressure off.

Our team of seasoned rental and buyer specialists are comprised of experienced, licensed real estate agents who are committed to helping you get comfortably settled into your new home and community.

The Mark David Relocation Customized Program provides the same outstanding service to renters as to buyers, including:

- Comprehensive information about New York's diverse neighborhoods
- Individualized lifestyle & property research customized to your specific and unique needs
- Personalized property recommendations
- In-depth Community overviews
- Private showings of selected exclusive apartments, co-ops, condominiums, or homes
- Unique and Specialized Concierge services customized just for you

If you are a corporation, you can establish a corporate account with Mark David New York, and your employees will receive a preferred rate that is lower than the industry standard and will do so without sacrificing superior service.

Our strong customer-service mindset and comprehensive systems will insure that your move is one of the smoothest transitions of your life. Let our experience and optimal quality service help you find the perfect place to call New York City your home. It is our pleasure to serve you above and beyond your expectations!
